Hendrix College Ranks Highest in Business and Educational Circles BECAUSE:

- a. The General Education Board of New York has made contributions to the College, totaling $350,000.00.
- b. The College is conducted on sound business principles, lives within its income, has in its councils some of the biggest business men of the state, receives large individual contributions, and is building up a large endowment.

For thirty-seven years Hendrix College has had a sound educational policy, has maintained the highest standards of scholarship and character, and has turned out many of the able men and women of the country.

- d. Hendrix has separated entirely the College from the Academy, giving each separate campus, buildings and faculty.

LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE JOURNAL

Sixty-Ninth Session

Conference Opened.—The sixty-ninth session of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met in the First Methodist Church in Texarkana, Arkansas, at 9 a. m., November 29, 1922, with Bishop James Atkins presiding. Devotional services were led by Dr. H. C. Morrison of Kentucky.

Secretaries.—The roll of the Conference was called. C. J. Greene was elected Secretary, C. N. Baker, assistant secretary, J. W. Mann, statistical secretary, and P. C. Fletcher, press representative.

Conference Opening.—The time for the beginning and the ending of Conference sessions was fixed at 9 a. m. and 12 m. respectively.

Bar.—The limits of the first floor of the auditorium were made the bar of the Conference.

Boards and Committees.—The presiding elders made their report nominating the quadrennial boards and the committees and their report was adopted.

Time of Holding Conference.—A motion carried expressing the desire of the Conference that the time of its sessions hereafter be fixed as near as practicable to the middle of November.

Received by Transfer.—Under Question 9, Who are received by transfer from other conferences? the Bishop announced the transfer of C. M. Reves, an elder, from the North Arkansas Conference, E. C. Cook, an elder, from the Arizona Conference, and J. J. Stowe, an elder, from the Tennessee Conference.

Conference Treasurer.—C. E. Hayes was elected Conference Treasurer for the quadrennium.

Introduced.—The following were introduced: Mr. W. C. Everett of the Publishing House at Dallas, Rev. A. M. Shaw of the Louisiana Conference, Dr. T. N. Ivey, Editor of the Christian Advocate, and Dr. J. J. Stowe and Rev. C. M. Reves, transfers to the Conference.

Addressed the Conference.—Professor Morelock addressed the Conference on the work the Layman's Movement is proposing to do.

Question 21.—Under Question 21, Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration? the Bishop called the following, those present made their reports, and their characters were passed: L. E. N. Hundley, R. H. Cannon, James Thomas, W. P. Whaley, J. W. Harrell, J. H. Cummins, J. F. Simmons, J. L. Cannon, J. J. Mellard, F. N. Brewer, M. K. Rogers, C. D. Cade, C. F. Messer, M. S. Monk, T. Harrison, W. B. Hogg.

Referred.—J. H. McKelvy was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the superannuate relation, and A. C. Graham for the supernumerary relation.

Withdrawn.—The name of P. S. Herron was called, and his presiding elder announced that he had withdrawn from the ministry and membership of the church.

Supplies.—The names of the following local preachers serving as supplies were called, those present made their reports, and their characters were passed: R. W. Groves, R. C. Walsh, C. J. Segers, G. T. Cagle, M. C. Scott, I. N. Cade, J. A. Coleman, V. A. Higgs, and J. R. Lowry.

Announcements.—The Committee on Public Worship announced that Dr. H. C. Morrison would preach at 3 p. m., and that the Sunday School anniversary would be held at the evening hour, with Bishop Atkins as the chief speaker.

Adjournment.—The Conference adjourned with the doxology and the benediction by Dr. T. N. Ivey.

SECOND DAY—THURSDAY

Conference Opened.—After devotional services conducted by Dr. H. C. Morrison, the Conference met at 9:00 a. m. with Bishop Atkins in the chair. A hymn was sung and M. S. Monk led in prayer. The minutes of the previous session were read, slightly corrected and approved. The names of those absent the first day were called, and the following alternates were seated in the place of lay delegates: Rev. E. M. Peters in the place of Frank Gruenewald in the Monticello District; Dr. R. E. John in the place of A. E. Hosteta in the Pine Bluff District; Mrs. Jesse Galloway in the place of J. F. Dugger in the Prescott District.

REPORTS OF BOARDS

REPORT OF BIBLE BOARD.

The Bible is the repository of God's ideas and plans for man. It describes his disease and offers to him the unfailing cure and the solution of the ever recurring problem. So long as sin is in the human heart, just so long must the Bible show us our Savior. It offers to lead our race out of darkness. Its truths obeyed and vitalized by the Holy Spirit make man's and nation's character after the likeness of God. The lessons of history are the warning lessons of ruin to the nations that disobey the Book of God.

The recent world agonies have sifted to death the false to God's Word that the things of Truth "which cannot be shaken may remain." Disobedience to the neighbor-love lessons of our old Book and the malicious obedience to the doctrines of a false religion is today making the sore spot, not only to Europe, but is sending a pang of grief to the heart of the civilized world; and America's refusal to have the old Book's guidance of love to enter the League of Nations has aided to bring calamities in the East to our brethren of the Cross, for which Christian patriots everywhere bow their heads in shame. Mohammedan wholesale murder and robbery has resulted when for reasons of national selfishness the Book of our unselfish religion has not been followed. Nothing but the Gospel of the old Book can bring the peoples of the earth to sanity and peace.

The call of our sin-stricken world is to Methodism to preach and teach in our schools the Word in dogmatic and not apologetic terms; and for the Bible to be distributed among the people of the earth. Our ministry should be a Bible-teaching ministry. All the private and denominational publishing plants are helpless to meet the world need for Scripture distribution. The American Bible Society is the only institution in the West that can adequately supply the Scriptures for our Protestantism in the homeland and in mission field.

Since the organization of the American Bible Society, 1816, it has issued more than one hundred forty-five million volumes of Scripture in one hundred and fifty different languages. The annual publication of Bibles and Portions the last ten years has been five millions; the total distribution from all sources the past year has been more than twenty-eight million volumes of Scriptures; and having two hundred eighty-one colporteurs and a total employed force of two thousand and twenty-seven, the distribution for the last ten years of Bibles and Portions by the American Bible Society has been ten volumes per minute, day and night. It would be difficult to conceive the extent of the calamity to our Protestantism were the aid of the American Bible Society to cease in Scriptural printing and distribution.

Moreover, the distribution of Scripture to the blind, to those in the reform schools and prisons and hospitals and in rescue homes, and to the soldiers of our own and other lands in times of war since 1847 has done untold good. But the American Bible Society is partly hand tied for want of funds for its benevolent work. It gets hundreds where it needs thousands for its benevolent and charitable distribution of Scripture. All the Protestant denominations, so dependent on the American Bible Society, for Bible supplies, should generously support that institution.

We again endorse the Southwestern Agency managed by Rev. J. J. Morgan with headquarters at Dallas, Texas. This agency has distributed one hundred twenty-three thousand Bibles and Portions during the present year and has been abundant in benevolent and charitable labors. We also commend Rev. D. H. Colquette, in charge of our depository of Bibles at Little Rock, Arkansas. He has wrought well in Scripture circulation. We commend highly the pocket Testament League.

Your Bible Board is expecting, as soon as the present money pressure of Centenary, Christian Education and Conference Claimants campaigns are over, that a collection will be taken in each of our pastoral charges on specified Bible Day, looking to the purchasing of a home for our Arkansas Bible Depository.

Your Board offers the following resolution:

First. That as we encourage our people in making wills and bestowing legacies to the various causes of our church, we also encourage gifts by wills and legacies to the American Bible Society.

Second. That the Little Rock Conference recommends the observance of a Bible Sabbath each year, each pastor using such Sabbath as suits his convenience; the importance of Bible study, and knowledge and circulation of the Scriptures be emphasized. Upon application, A. B. S. will furnish free of charge needed literature for the sermon of that day.

Third. That each pastor in the Little Rock Conference see to it that his people are in easy reach of an American Bible Society Depository; or otherwise by the co-operation of Rev. Morgan or Rev. Colquette found a depository in his own parsonage home. The people would soon make a roadway to the parsonage depository.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The value of Christian Literature as an evangelizing and edifying agency, can not be estimated too highly, since in this way must come the largest amount of information on spiritual lines, especially to him who seeks to know God's will and work.

If Methodism would meet her obligation to this age, and so function as to be salt to the earth, and light to the world, every member should "Stand around about in his place." Our papers, magazines, and books help us to find our place, and to fulfill our divine mission. There is no place where we may stop reading so long as we would render real service to humanity.

We must know the great objective of our calling, and keep step in the onward march of the church militant. We must do team-work, or largely fail. To this end our General Organ, the Nashville Christian Advocate, and our Conference Organ, the Arkansas Methodist, must have large circulation. To this end also, our books, booklets, The Quarterly Review and Missionary Voice, should have the support of our church. We urge more reading of Methodist literature, by old and young, and especially by our young people, that they may develop in loyalty and love for our Church.

The Board of Managers of Tracts and Evangelistic Literature, have a splendid line of tracts and booklets which they call our attention to. These may be had at small cost, and from our Publishing House at Nashville or Dallas. They may be had for the asking, when wanted for those where we have established missions.

We have heard Dr. Millar and Rev. J. C. Glenn, concerning the new plan for the Arkansas Methodist, and endorse the plan.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the month of February be set apart as Arkansas Methodist Circulation Week.
2. That the Budget System be adopted, wherever practicable.
3. That Two Thousand Dollars be assessed on the Conference for the support of the Arkansas Methodist.
4. That Dr. A. C. Millar be appointed editor, and Rev. J. C. Glenn be appointed Business Manager of the Methodist.
5. That all our pastors are under the same obligation to the Arkansas Methodist as to the other institutions of the Church, and are expected to look after this interest as they would the General Claims.
6. We recommend the reappointment of the same commissioners, Brothers Thornburg, Thomas and Steel.

R. G. ROWLAND,
T. P. CLARK, Secretary.

ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

The Board of Church Extension for the incoming quadrennium organized and elected the following officers: W. P. Whaley, Chairman; G. W. Pardee, Secretary; W. W. Christie, Treasurer.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that the Conference Board of Church Extension shall hereafter neither grant nor recommend a loan or gift for the erection of a new church until the plans of such church have been reviewed by the joint Committee on Architecture from this Board and the Conference Sunday School Board.

The following were elected as a Committee on Architecture from this Board: W. P. Whaley, J. R. Dickerson, B. H. Logan.

Fraternally submitted,

W. P. WHALEY, Chairman.

G. W. PARDEE, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 1

We, the Board of Education of the Little Rock Annual Conference, have had before us, for our consideration, reports from each of our three colleges, Hendrix, Galloway and Henderson-Brown, also statements from the General Board of Education and our Conference Education Secretary, and respectfully submit the following:

First. We are gratified at the interest and progress made toward the objectives of the Christian Education Movement. What has been accomplished is a tribute to the faithful service and loyal co-operation of the preachers and people related to it.

Second. We desire to emphasize the fact that the campaign is still open and should not be closed until the entire Conference quota is raised. The information before us reveals, if possible, more forcefully than ever, the tremendous inadequacy of our equipment to provide for the increasing demand. Our task is incomplete, and it is hereby declared to be the policy of this Conference to regard our entire quota as a goal to be attained.

Third. That we urge our people to pay promptly their Educational subscriptions when they fall due, and that Presiding Elders and pastors do what they can to secure promptness in this respect. We recommend for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the Conference assessments for the ensuing year be as follows:

Henderson-Brown College	$ 5,000.00
Galloway College	5,000.00
Hendrix College	5,000.00
Ministerial Education	1,200.00
Incidental Expenses of the Board.....	200.00
For Student Pastor at State Normal.....	500.00
Total	$16,900.00

2. That the following trustees for our institutions of learning be elected: For Henderson-Brown College, C. C. Henderson, J. A. Sage; for Hendrix College, Ex-Governor George W. Donaghey, Dr. P. C. Fletcher; for Galloway College, Mr. W. W. Brown.

3. We recommend the appointment of Dr. R. W. McKay as Conference Secretary of Education and Secretary-Treasurer.

4. (a) That the Conference also pledge its hearty co-operation with the General Board of Education, in prosecution in the Conference, the work of Religious Education, and especially in developing a complete program of moral and religious training in the primary, grammar and high school, and in providing for optional courses in religious and moral subjects to be offered in the colleges and universities of the State.

(b) That the Conference pledge its hearty and earnest support of the plans of the General Conference Board of Education in carrying on the Christian Education Movement.

Fourth. We recommend the endorsement of Rev. J. J. Galloway as Financial Agent for Henderson-Brown College.

Fifth. We recommend that the Board of Managers for the Summer School at Hendrix College be authorized to extend the time of said schools for a time of two to three weeks.

That a course of study be worked out for serious study, adapted to the minds of the preachers.

That the Presiding Elders of the two Conferences continue as an advisory Board; and that the Presidents of the Boards of Education and the Education Secretaries of the two Conferences and the Conference Superintendents of Sunday Schools of the two conferences and the President of Hendrix College be constituted as the Board of Managers of the School. This Board shall prepare the programs and manage the School.

That the Presiding Elders be requested not to schedule any District Conferences during the session of the School, and that they use their influence with the Board of Stewards to pay the expenses of any such preachers as need assistance.

That C. J. Greene be appointed Professor in Hendrix College; J. M. Workman, President of Henderson-Brown College; R. C. Rhodes, Professor in Emory University; and Thornburgh Workman, Professor in Southern Methodist University.

Sixth. We further recommend that the President of Hendrix College and the Conference Secretaries of Education of the two Conferences in the State, be appointed to serve with committees from the other boards of the conferences to devise plans for cooperative efforts in religious education on the part of the several Conference Boards.

STONEWALL ANDERSON, Chairman.

G. N. CANNON, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Report No. 2

The Board has had before it the report of the action and plans of the Western Methodist Assembly Board.

The result of their action was the selection of a site at Fayetteville, Arkansas, and we note with much pleasure the magnanimous liberality of the citizenship of the City of Fayetteville in their relation to this great enterprise.

First. We most heartily endorse the entire plan as submitted by the Assembly Board.

MINUTES LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE

Second. We recommend the election of Dr. A. C. Millar and C. E. Hayes as Trustees from the Little Rock Conference.

STONEWALL ANDERSON, Chairman.

G. N. CANNON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Conference:

Your Committee on Evangelism beg to submit the following report:

Early in the Conference year, the Evangelistic director communicated with the various pastors, urging a simultaneous pre-Easter campaign wherever possible, which request was complied with by all pastors that were located where such pre-Easter campaigns could be held, and all other pastors conducted revivals at some time during the year. The reports of all preachers show increased activities along evangelistic lines in almost every charge, resulting in a large number of additions to the church on profession of faith.

We, therefore, submit the following recommendations for your consideration:

First. That some outstanding evangelist be secured to preach a series of evangelistic sermons during the next annual session of this conference.

Second. That all preachers of evangelistic spirit be urged to assist other preachers whenever possible.

Third. That in so far as possible, simultaneous pre-Easter evangelistic campaigns be conducted throughout the conference, which shall include Decision Day in the Sunday Schools on Easter Sunday, and that other evangelistic campaigns be conducted throughout the year at such time or times as may be best suited to the conditions in the various charges.

Fraternally submitted,

J. D. HAMMONDS, Chairman.

J. D. PARDEE, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

We, your Epworth League Board, submit the following report:

We note the increasing interest in Epworth League work throughout the conference. Reports indicate that more Chapters have been organized this year, and more young people enlisted in Christian service, than any previous year.

Your Board has endeavored to do two things: First, secure the observance of Anniversary Day, and second, assisting the Conference Epworth League organization in its work.

We have been in close touch with the conference organization and the officers are faithful in their duties and loyal to the program of the Church. The quality of work done in the local Chapters is increasing. We have eleven gold seal chapters this year as against six last year. We have had eighteen new Life Service Volunteers this year. The Summer Assembly at Arkadelphia last June was the largest in attendance and best in quality of work done of the three Assemblies. There were 200 young people there for serious work, and results are gratifying.

We have had a more general observance of Anniversary Day this year, but are far behind what we should do. Of 149 pastoral charges 46 observed the day. The Little Rock District leads both in number of churches observing and in amount sent in.

Your Board thanks you for your co-operation and most respectfully asks for a continuation of your hearty support and good will.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF FINANCE

We, your Conference Board of Finance, beg leave to submit the following report:

First, we recommend that the Little Rock Conference empower the Conference Board of Finance and the Conference Board of Trustees to turn over all money, notes, and securities constituting the Little Rock Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund, to the General Board of Finance as Trustees of this fund for claimants of the Little Rock Conference.

Second, we further ask the Little Rock Conference to endorse a movement of the Conference Board of Finance to insure all the clerical members of the Conference as a group for the benefit of those who may become claimants on the board by the death of any member of the Conference.

Third, we endorse a movement to build within the bounds of the Little Rock Conference Superannuate Homes, said homes to be under the control of the Little Rock Conference Board of Finance.

Fourth, we ask for an assessment of $22,000.00 for the Superannuates, widows, and orphans; $1,200.00 as an expense fund, making a total of $23,200.00.

LAY ACTIVITIES

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on Lay Activities, beg leave to submit the following report:

That we have assumed the responsibility of and will undertake to collect all of the pastors' salaries and Conference Claims in full.

That we will undertake to collect all of the moneys now due on the Centenary and Educational Fund.

That we will endeavor to educate our people to pay a tithe, and thereby solve the church's financial problem.

That for the purpose of carrying into execution the above objective, we have asked your Committee on Budget to make an appropriation sufficiently large to pay the necessary traveling expenses and hotel bills and other incidental expenses to accomplish that purpose.

After reviewing the work of this year, we beg to report that from the layman's standpoint the Little Rock Conference is in the best shape that it has ever been during the history of the church. This end has been accomplished by the untiring efforts of the presiding elders and pastors, and our efficient Conference Lay Leader, Brother Sam T. Poe, who during the past quadrennium has served us so faithfully, using his own funds to defray any expenses that were incurred in the discharge of his duties. We, therefore, recommend that Brother Poe be re-elected as Conference Lay Leader for the ensuing year.

G. W. PARDEE, President.

KAY D. McNEELY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

We, your Board of Missions, submit the following report:

We are facing conditions that should give us pause. All nations are in the process of change, old things are passing away. The reactions from the war have been disturbing and the whole world is in a state of ferment.

Our own country is menaced by industrial conflicts, disregard for civil law, and a crime wave which is reckless of human rights and life is sweeping our land.

The time has come when the Church must meet unprecedented conditions and go forward with the assurance that victory is ours if we will with courage and the spirit of service in the name of our Christ do our full duty.

We urge upon our pastors the duty of leading our people to feel the obligation of paying 100 per cent of the budget placed in the respective charges.

We deem it unnecessary in this report to enter into any detailed plans as to giving to our people full information as to the church's program which is essentially missionary.

We have elected Rev. James Thomas, Secretary of Missions for the Little Rock Conference, which, together with his work as Secretary of Centenary for the North Arkansas and Little Rock Conferences will occupy his full time, and we bespeak for him the co-operation of our brethren in every possible way.

It is not hard to see that unless the church rallies in an unusual way to the securing of our Centenary pledges, a period of great embarrassment is not far ahead.

We have elected the following Evangelistic Committee: E. R. Steel, B. F. Musser, J. L. Deloney, D. F. Goddard and J. D. Hammons.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. B. A. Few as Conference Evangelist.

We make the following appropriations for the ensuing Conference year:

ORPHANAGE BOARD

We rejoice that our Orphanage, located at Little Rock, is doing such a splendid work. We have had before us the report of the secretary, Dr. James Thomas, which report shows that the institution was never in better condition.

At the close of the year, September 30, 1921, the orphanage had 36 children in the Home. During the year now closing 27 children have been received, and 25 have been placed in good homes. The institution now has 38 in it. During the existence of the orphanage 411 children have been placed.

During the year Col. George Thornburgh has received in special gifts in money the sum of $1,598.57, making a total of $4,305.98 that he has collected for building and equipment.

The amount collected by the two conferences for the Orphanage totals $5,888.84, and the amount expended for the year, $6,938.31. Showing that the conferences are not furnishing enough money to run the institution by $1,049.47.

We do not think it is best to ask the conference for an increase in the assessment, but we do urge that the full assessment as formerly be paid in full. This will enable the orphanage to operate without embarrassment. The Little Rock Conference paid last year 65 per cent of its assessment, and the North Arkansas paid 53 per cent. Therefore, we ask the conference to lay the same assessment of $5,000, and that each pastor pledge himself to raise, if possible, the full amount assigned to his charge.

We rejoice that Col. Thornburgh, who through the years has devoted his great brain and heart to the work, is still highly active and able to look after the administration of the Home.

At a recent meeting of the Board the following members were re-elected: President, Col. George Thornburgh; Secretary, Dr. James Thomas; Executive Committee, George Thornburgh, James Thomas and P. C. Fletcher.

The Home has one of the best matrons of its history, according to the Superintendent's report, and every feature of the work is most encouraging and commendable.

The Board endorses the plans as suggested by the Rev. C. N. Baker to raise the deficit in expenses for the orphanage.

A. W. HAMILTON, Chairman.

B. F. SCOTT, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

During the year your Sunday School Board has supported four full time workers, your Conference Superintendent, Mr. F. T. Fowler, Mrs. F. T. Fowler, and Training School Instructors whose services have equalled the full time of a fourth employed worker for the conference.

A summary of the field work accomplished by these workers is as follows:

Number Training Schools Held.....	7
One Week One-Teacher Schools Held.....	13
Total Schools Held	20
Number Officers and Teachers Enrolled in Above Schools.....	1417
Number Sunday Schools Represented in these Schools.....	212
State-Wide Methodist Sunday School Conferences.....	1
Conference Elementary Institutes.....	1

District Institutes Held at District Conferences.....	5
District Institutes Held at Training Schools.....	42
District Elementary Institutes.....	3
Total District Institutes Held.....	50
Institutes Held in Station Charges.....	44
Circuit Institutes Held.....	230
Group Elementary Institutes Held.....	24
Total Charge and Group Institutes Held.....	298
Miscellaneous Group Meetings and Conferences Held.....	20
Total Number of Conferences and Institutes Conducted by Your Field Workers.....	370
Number of Schools Reached in Training Schools.....	212
Number Schools Reached in Institutes.....	227
Total Schools Reached	439
Total Number of Officers and Teachers Reached in These Schools	4417

The statistics for the year are not available at the time this report is written, but there is every indication that this has been one of the best years of our work. We wish our brethren to keep in mind, however, that the real good accomplished by the Conference Sunday School program cannot be measured in statistics. There is another value far superior to all this and it is a value which defies measurement in terms of figures, dollars and cents. We refer to that general awakening in Sunday School work which has gradually come over our whole conference. It is seen in the better appreciation of the place of the child in the Kingdom. It is noted in the new type of church buildings. It is indicated by the large number of preachers taking the training course and reading books on religious education. It is proven by the large number of schools introducing Graded Literature. It is shown by a deeper appreciation of the dignity and responsibility of their work on the part of officers and teachers, and an earnest endeavor to measure up to a higher standard. It is felt everywhere by the changed attitude on the part of our people toward everything that has to do with religious education.

If further proof of the significance of a strong conference program of Sunday School work is needed, it can be found in the following comparison between six conferences that employed a Conference Secretary and supported a strong program of work during the past quadrennium, and seven conferences of about equal strength that made no provision for their Sunday School work during the same period. We shall designate these as Groups 1 and 2, Group 1 being the conferences that supported their work.

Group 1—Gain in Sunday School Enrollment for the Quadrennium	53127
Group 2—Lost in Enrollment for the Quadrennium.....	4811
Group 1—Pupils Joining Church During Quadrennium.....	62121
Group 2—Pupils Joining Church During Quadrennium.....	38462
Group 1—Increase in Missionary Offerings for Quadrennium	299 per cent
Group 2—Increase in Missionary Offerings for Quadrennium	157 per cent

Group 1—Standard Training Schools Held During Quadrennium--	57
Group 2—Standard Training Schools Held During Quadrennium--	6
Group 1—Students Enrolled in Training Courses
During Quadrennium -----	8508
Group 2—Students Enrolling in Training Courses
During Quadrennium -----	4535
Group 1—Credits Issued for Completion of Subjects in Teacher
Training During Quadrennium -----	8255
Group 2—Credits Issued for Completion of Subjects in Teacher
Training During Quadrennium-----	2533
Group 1—Gain in Church Membership During Quadrennium-----	59905
Group 2—Gain in Church Membership During Quadrennium-----	403

It is sufficient to add that the Little Rock Conference is one of the six in Group 1.

The following are the banner charges for their districts on Sunday School Day offerings:

Camden District, El Dorado Station, P. Q. Rorie, Pastor.

Little Rock District, Winfield Memorial, W. B. Hogg, Pastor.

Monticello District, Tillar Circuit, J. W. Mann, Pastor.

Pine Bluff District, First Church, E. R. Steel, Pastor.

Prescott District, Hope Station, Alonzo Monk, Pastor.

Texarkana District, First Church, J. D. Hammons, Pastor.

In the Arkadelphia District—Central Avenue, Hot Springs, M. S. Monk, Pastor; Malvern Station, J. A. Henderson, Pastor, and Arkadelphia Station, J. L. Cannon, Pastor, tied for first place.

The Little Rock District, Rev. James Thomas, Presiding Elder, gave the largest offering of the year. The Texarkana District, Rev. J. F. Simmons, Presiding Elder, paid the largest per cent over its quota. The Prescott District, Rev. J. H. Cummins, Presiding Elder, not only reached its quota in full, but reported every charge out in full, and an offering in every church in the District. We have, therefore, awarded the Conference banner to this District again.

We have elected Rev. Clem Baker, Conference Superintendent of Sunday Schools, and respectfully ask that he be appointed for this position. We have elected Mr. F. T. Fowler, Conference Rural Sunday School worker. We have elected Mrs. F. T. Fowler Conference Elementary Superintendent and Teacher-Training Instructor.

We have appointed Rev. D. H. Colquette to handle the Sunday School Books for our Conference Board.

We have appointed Clem Baker, J. M. Workman, and C. M. Reves as a Committee of three to cooperate with the Board of Education and other boards in working out the cooperative program of religious education in our Conference.

We have appointed Clem Baker, P. C. Fletcher, and C. E. Hayes as a committee to cooperate with the Board of Church Extension in promotion of church buildings.

We have elected A. B. Simmons of Little Rock as Treasurer of the Board.

We have asked the Commission on Budget for an assessment of $8,000.00 for the support of our work for another year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

First. That we endorse and pledge our hearty cooperation to the campaign of evangelism in Sunday School which is being projected by the General Sunday School Board for the months of January, February and March, 1923, and urge all our presiding elders and pastors to enter enthusiastically into this campaign.

Second. That all our Sunday Schools that can possibly do so appoint key-women and put on the Program for Children's Week.

Third. That we authorize our Conference Superintendent to put on a definite campaign to reach an increased enrollment of 10,000 in the Sunday Schools of our Conference this year.

Fourth. That the Sunday School Board be authorized to work out with the North Arkansas Conference Sunday School Board such correlation of Sunday School work for the State as a whole as will promote economy and efficiency.

Fifth. That the Conference Sunday School Board be instructed to promote Week-Day Religious Instruction and Daily Vacation Bible Schools wherever possible, and that plans and programs for same be worked out by a committee composed of Clem Baker, C. M. Reves, J. F. Simmons, J. M. Workman, and Miss Helena Trieschman.

Sixth. That Sunday School Day be observed in every Sunday School in the Conference, and an offering be taken in every Sunday School in the Conference for Conference and District Sunday School work this year.

Seventh. That during the Christmas holidays all our Sunday Schools make an offering for our Methodist Orphanage at Little Rock, and that we seek to make this fund sufficient to cover the $1,000.00 deficit not provided for by the Orphanage Board in its askings this year.

Eighth. That Rev. Clem Baker be elected a member of the Board of Managers of the Summer School for Ministers at Hendrix College.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES OF THE BOARD FOR 1923.

First. The perfection of an effective organization in every district and provision of training of district officers.

Second. A minimum of nine Standard Training Schools.

Third. A minimum of thirty-five non Standard Training Schools.

Fourth. The placing of the New Program of work in every School in the Conference.

Fifth. A District Sunday School Conference in every Presiding Elder's District, and intensive cultivation of rural work.

Sixth. A campaign to reach 10,000 increased Sunday School enrollment.

Seventh. Making available for each District organization a sum of money for the prosecution of a program of work approved by the Conference Sunday School Board, by returning to each District organization from the treasury of the Conference Board an amount equal to fifty per cent of the funds raised in the District on Sunday School Day.

Finally, we wish to express our appreciation for the hearty support of our Presiding Elders, Pastors, Superintendents, and other workers this year; to the General Sunday School Board for the magnificent support given our Conference Board this year, and to Bishop James Atkins for the many services he has rendered in awakening an interest in our work throughout the Conference.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

We, your Board on Temperance and Social Service, rejoice to report that prohibition did not suffer in the last election; that we have practically as many prohibitionists in Congress as heretofore. We lost a few seats in the House, but still have a majority. We won three seats in the Senate.

The enforcement of the law demands our best efforts at this time. An organized effort is being made by the whiskey people to overthrow the Constitution of these United States by illicit making and selling of corn whiskey.

We recommend that all law-abiding citizens give their whole-hearted support to any and all organizations which are trying to suppress the whiskey traffic.

Whereas, the decorations of the graveyards in some places in our Conference territory on various Sabbaths, with dinner on the ground, is interfering with our Sabbath School work and the attendance at our preaching services.

Therefore, Resolved by the Little Rock Conference that we appeal to our people where graveyards are decorated, the national day, the 30th of May, be used.

P. Q. RORIE, Chairman.

L. C. GATLIN, Secretary.

MINUTES LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE

Report No. 2 of Board of Temperance and Social Service

Whereas, in recent months, the Turkish army has violated the rules of civilized warfare, especially in the slaughter of helpless children and in the basest treatment of women;

And, Whereas, the history of Turkey's dealings with subject peoples for centuries demonstrates her unfitness to be trusted with power over weaker races; therefore,

Be it Resolved that our sympathy and prayers go out for the people who have been and are so barbarously oppressed and mistreated, and that we heartily approve of the appeals made to our Government by our own Bishop James Cannon, and that we call upon our President and Congress to use all of the influence of our Government to show our indignation over the atrocities already perpetrated and to prevent the recurrence of such infamous outrages.

Our Secretary is hereby directed to transmit copies of these resolutions to Hon. Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State, and to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

We pledge the continued support of the Little Rock Conference to the committee in charge of Near East Relief, and call upon our people to respond to the appeals of that committee.

P. Q. RORIE, Chairman.

L. C. GATLIN, Secretary.

We recommend the election of George Thornburgh, A. C. Millar, P. Q. Rorie, J. S. Utley and B. A. Few as members of the State Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF LITTLE ROCK CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

We are endeavoring to keep before our Church the object of this Board of Trustees. We have never doubted the ultimate success of this plan. If the younger and more active members of our Conference would keep this Board before our people of means, the Board of Trustees would receive gifts and bequests from time to time.

Treasurer's Statement

Lou A. Davis Fund -----	$1,000.00
General Fund -----	667.00
Received Since Last Conference -----	163.00
Total -----	$1,830.00

We have turned over to J. A. Parker, Treasurer, $109.00, income from Loan ending December 1, 1922.

After free discussion by members of the Board, it was decided to turn over our money to the General Board of Finance of St. Louis, Missouri, Dr. L. E. Todd, Secretary, to be administered for the Little Rock Conference, since they are in better shape to lend it than we are, our local Board maintaining its organization and receiving all moneys that may come our way in enlarging this sacred fund.

We are happy to report that Brother and Sister Morrison of Beaumont, Texas, have remitted to us $50.00, to begin a fund to be known as "THE KILPATRICK-MORRISON SUPERANNUATE FUND," which we will keep separate, and which they purpose to add to from year to year. This $50.00 is a part of the above total.

Our organization is as follows:

J. A. Henderson, President; James Thomas, Secretary-Treasurer; Rev. R. W. McKay, J. A. Sage and L. B. Leigh.

We attach hereto a copy of our Constitution, which we wish published in the Minutes with this report.

In addition to the above, we hold in trust one home for Superannuates, located at Arkadelphia, Arkansas, valued at $3,000.00. This home is now occupied by Mrs. J. H. Riffin.

Respectfully,

JAMES THOMAS, Sec'y.-Treas.

Constitution

We, J. A. Henderson, James Thomas, R. W. McKay, J. A. Sage and L. B. Leigh, and our successors, desire to form a corporation, and for that purpose adopt the following constitution:

First. The name of said corporation shall be, The Board of Trustees of the Little Rock Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Second. The object of the corporation shall be to receive, hold, and administer all moneys, funds and property, real and personal, that may from time to time come into its hands by donations, gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, for any of the uses, purposes and needs of the Little Rock Conference, particularly funds and property for the use of superannuated preachers of said Conference.

Third. Said Board is authorized to place at interest any and all funds that may come into its hands for the use and benefit of said Conference, and shall make a full and complete report of its acts and doings in that behalf to the annual meeting of said Little Rock Conference for approval, showing disposition of the interests and funds received provided always, the Board shall carry out the wishes of the donors of said funds or property.

Fourth. That the vacancies in said Board shall be filled by said Little Rock Conference, but in the interim such vacancies may be filled by the remainder of said Board and the persons so appointed shall hold until the next meeting of said Conference.

Fifth. That the regular meeting of said Board shall be on the first day of the annual session of said Conference, and at the same place as the Conference is held. The first meeting shall be on the fifth day of March, 1899, at the city of Little Rock. Provided also: The President of the Board may call a meeting of the Board when deemed necessary.

Sixth. That the officers of said Board shall consist of a President, Secretary and Treasurer; who shall be elected every two years, provided those elected at the first meeting shall hold until the regular annual meeting.

Seventh. Four members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

We, your Committee on District Conference Journals, find that the Arkadelphia, Pine Bluff and Little Rock District records are o. k. and well kept.

We find in the Prescott, Camden, Monticello and Texarkana District records that the words "Methodist Episcopal Church, South," are lacking in the heading of the sessions. We recommend that the starting of each session be headed as follows: "The _____ Session of the _____ District Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, convened at _____." This will insure a record that cannot be questioned in the future.

The four records above mentioned are otherwise well kept.

Respectfully submitted,

M. K. IRVIN, Chairman.

C. A. FULLER, Secretary.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Whereas, this session of our Conference will go down in the history of the Little Rock Conference as one of its greatest, and whereas the tide of spirituality and fraternal love has risen higher than in many years past, and whereas the hospitality of the First Church and its friends has been gracious and helpful, and whereas the pastors and members of sister churches have added to our comfort and joy,

Therefore, Be It Resolved,

First, that we thank Brother Hammons and his great congregation for the unstinted hospitality extended,

Second, that we thank the pastors of all the other churches for unselfish contributions to our happiness,

Third, that we thank the press for the space devoted to our proceedings,

Fourth, that we thank Dr. H. C. Morrison for his great ministry to us and assure him that our prayers will follow him,

Fifth, that we thank our president, Bishop James Atkins, for his uniform courtesy and brotherly leadership of our hosts and wish to assure him of our gracious interest in the prayers for him.

JAMES THOMAS,
ALVA L. ROGERS,
C. B. DAVIS,
T. O. RORIE.

Memoirs

MRS. JAMES THOMAS.

In the translation of Mrs. Ella Hayes, wife of the Rev. Dr. James Thomas, Methodism lost one of her greatest and most beloved women. All that is purest and holiest in life and tenderest in sympathy and sweetest in mercy and freest in charity and fairest in virtue and most beautiful in character were embodied in the life of this saint of God.

Mrs. Thomas was the daughter of the Rev. T. W. Hayes and Mrs. Ameliia Hayes, who came of two of the South's very best families. She was born in Georgia, September 25, 1860, and ascended to the Father's House, September 11, 1922, after an illness of several months.

She was first married on January 1, 1880, to Mr. C. C. McRae, a brother of Gov. Thomas C. McRae, Arkansas' Chief Executive. He was a prominent young business man of Prescott, and at the time of his death, on July 1, 1882, he was the nominee for the office of Sheriff of Nevada County.

She was married the second time to the Rev. Dr. James Thomas, of the Little Rock Conference, and the present Presiding Elder of the Little Rock District, on December 31, 1891. For thirty-one years they walked arm in arm through "The Garden of the Years," their love and labors blending into a beautiful oneness.

For some years Mrs. Thomas was connected with the faculty of the Prescott Public School, where her rich mind and heart enabled her to be an inspiration to the young life that came under her influence, and where she was held in the highest esteem.

For more than thirty years Mrs. Thomas filled the delicate and important place of a minister's wife, and as to how well she did this thousands of persons can testify. She was endowed by nature and grace for such a holy task. She was cautious in what she said, just and sane in her judgments, charitable in her analysis of the motives of others, gracious in her manners, untiring in her energy, and unselfish in her ministrations. She was equally at home among the poor and the rich, the ignorant and the cultured, so adaptable was she to circumstances. No wonder she was a constant inspiration to her minister-husband, at whose side she walked with grace and power.

The abilities and capacities of Mrs. Thomas were very pronounced. Hence she was often loaded with the responsibilities of leadership. For more than a decade Mrs. Thomas was President of the Little Rock Conference Woman's Missionary Society, and in this capacity she rendered a great service. Her splendid mental poise, her rich gift of speech, her wisdom in counsel, and her capacity to inspire confidence—all these made her powerful and effective. She was for years the President of the Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church, Texarkana, and of the Winfield Memorial Church, Little Rock.

As a Sunday school teacher Mrs. Thomas took high rank. Under her winsome way of imparting truth hundreds of boys and young men were lifted to the altitudes of thought and spiritual ambition. The Young Men's Class of First Church, Texarkana, was named in her honor, she having organized and taught it.

It was a beautiful autumn day when the angels came and bore the chastened spirit of this good woman to the eternal realm of light and love. Her death was a glorious transition. It was a going home, unabashed and unafraid. She fell asleep like a tired babe in its mother's arms.

Mrs. Thomas is survived by her distinguished husband, by her venerable father, who is in his 91st year; by two queenly daughters, Mrs. N. J. Gantt, of Pine Bluff, and Miss Fay McRae, of Little Rock; by two brothers and four sisters, Mr. C. E. Hayes, of Little Rock; Mr. E. C. Hayes of DeQueen, Ark., Mrs. L. E. Hinton, Mrs. Florence Park, and Miss Maude Hayes of Little Rock, and Mrs. K. G. McRae of Hope.

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas was held from the family residence on Broadway, Little Rock, on September 12, and was conducted by the Rev. W. B. Hogg, of Winfield Church, Little Rock; Dr. E. R. Steel, of First Church, Pine Bluff; Dr. R. W. McKay, Educational Secretary of the Little Rock Conference; and the writer of this memoir. The beautiful tributes paid to her womanhood, wifeness, motherhood and sainthood were unfeigned. The profusion of flowers fittingly typified the purity and loveliness of her character. At the grave, in beautiful Oakland, Dr. A. C. Millar, of the Arkansas Methodist, and the Rev. J. A. Sage, of Prescott, assisted in the service. More than 25 ministers acted as honorary pallbearers, representing various parts of the conference. The scene was a most unusual and impressive one.

There was "no moaning of the bar" when this saint put out to sea, for her eyes could read the mystic meaning which only the rapt and parting soul may know. She could say with Frances Willard: "How beautiful it is to be with God."

"So fades the summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore."

MRS. GRACE NUNNELEY CANNON

Mrs. Grace Nunneley Cannon, wife of Rev. F. C. Cannon, was born near Brownstown, in Sevier County, Arkansas, December 27, 1876, and died June 19, 1922, at her home in Texarkana, Arkansas. She was converted at the age of 13 years, and joined the Missionary Baptist Church, that being the Church of which her parents were members. She was married to Rev. F. C. Cannon October 2, 1901, the writer officiating. The following year 1902, she joined the M. E. Church, South, her husband being a preacher in that church, a member of Little Rock Conference. Although she became thoroughly sound as a believer in the doctrine and policy of the latter church, she retained her attachment for the former to the end of her earthly life. She was a woman of superior personal appearance and natural mentality, and far above the ordinary in cultivation. In life and character she was as pure a woman as I ever knew. She seemed always cheerful notwithstanding her abiding consciousness of her near approaching death. I never saw her when she seemed despondent. She was considerate of others, rarely referring to her own afflictions and sufferings in their presence, lest they should suffer with her. I doubt if any one could know her and not admire her beautiful Christian character. Her faith in Christ was abiding and unwavering. For five years her health had been declining, her heart becoming enlarged to twice its normal size, causing her breathing to be difficult, and for some time she had been confined to her bed. But for several days before her death she had been up and able to walk around in the house. On Friday night, at 11 o'clock she seemed to be sleeping quite naturally, at 6:45 in the morning it was discovered that her spirit had flown away to live in the higher sphere.

She leaves her husband and two children, a son and daughter to mourn their loss. As requested by her, she was buried in the Brownstown Cemetery, the writer officiating in the funeral service.

W. M. Crowson.

MRS. ARCHELAUS TURRENTINE.

Mrs. Archelaus Turrentine, whose maiden name was Frances Elizabeth Shannon, was born August 5, 1858. She was married to Archelaus Turrentine January 20, 1876. Two years later he was admitted on trial in the Little Rock Conference, of which he is still an honored and beloved member. For nearly forty-four years this devoted couple shared the common experience of the Methodist itinerancy. Like nearly all the preachers of their time they moved often, lived on meager salaries, and endured much privation and real hardships. But in common with the great body of those with whom they were associated in the work of the ministry they "endured hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ." They accepted those things as a matter of course and went forward courageously and cheerfully in the work to which they had gladly devoted their lives. They did not complain about hardships or consume their energies in planning for better appointments. They were happy in the work to which they believed God had called them. Their home was full of sunshine, love and faith.

During these busy, active years, which were punctuated by long and frequent moves from one charge to another, many children were born into the family, nine of whom grew to manhood and womanhood and still live to bless the memory of their sainted mother and to content the declining days of their honored father. How the parents managed to care for all these children, provide for their temporal wants, put them all through school and college and send them out to places of usefulness and honor in the world is known only to the One who knows and understands all things. It is needless to say that such a result would not have been possible if only an ordinary woman had filled the place of wife and mother in that parsonage home. By every token Mrs. Turrentine was a superior woman. She was richly endowed by nature. A noble physique, a clear, strong, active mind and a great soul combined to produce in her a woman of unusual strength and beauty of character. Above all she was deeply and consistently religious. She was soundly converted when she was a child and joined the Methodist church in which she was ever a bright and shining light. She knew Christ as her personal Savior. She lived the life of prayer and faith and love. No one could be long associated with her without feeling the influence of her beautiful and unselfish life. The people among whom she and her husband lived and labored loved and honored her and her memory is still fragrant in the hearts of the mighty hosts of those with whom she was associated in the various places where she lived and served.

About three years ago Brother Turrentine's health became so seriously impaired that he was compelled to surrender his charge and accept a superannuated relation. When this occurred they moved to their home in Arkadelphia, the home which the wise management and heroic economy of the wife and mother had done so much to provide, where they continued to live until the morning of February 1, 1922, when after several hours of lingering illness, Sister Turrentine fell asleep and her redeemed spirit passed to that home which our Lord has prepared for all those who love and serve Him.

Her death was peaceful and triumphant. Her husband and all the living children were about her bedside at the time. Doubtless the spirits of the children who had gone before her to the Heavenly home were lingering near to greet her as she entered the Heavenly realm of the departed dead, and took her place among the bloodwashed throngs of the redeemed in heaven.

The funeral services were conducted in the Methodist church at Arkadelphia by the Rev. J. M. Workman, assisted by the writer of this tribute to her memory. A marvelous array of beautiful floral tributes were massed about the chancel and later covered her grave. A great company of sorowing friends who were present bore mute but eloquent witness to the love and esteem which were cherished for her by the people among whom she had lived during the closing years of her life. Well may we say of her:

"Servant of God, well done;
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."
